EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

India has, thus far, deftly walked the diplomatic tight-rope between Russia and the West. Both Russia and China were part of the consensus on the Bali Declaration. But since then, the battle-lines have become even sharper, and both sides have dug in their heels, as was evident in Bengaluru and Delhi.

India has also raised the expectations of the Global South, having assured it during a virtual 'Voice of the Global South Summit' in January that its voice will be heard at the G-20 forum.

Having chosen the theme of 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam' (One Earth, One Family, One Future') for its G-20 Presidency, India is undoubtedly looking to burnish its credentials as a world leader. A lot, therefore, hinges on the outcome of the G-20 summit.

As India makes its diplomatic manoeuvres in the coming months, its leadership may well draw a leaf out of Indonesian President Joko Widodo's book. His quiet and effective outreach during Indonesia's G-20 Presidency in 2022 to both Russia and Ukraine — he made trips to both Moscow and Kyiv to invite both President Vladimir Putin and President Volodymyr Zelenskyy — as well as other countries, earned him widespread praise. And the Bali Declaration came through even though the Ukraine war had already driven a deep wedge among G-20 members.

India will need to redouble its diplomatic efforts to ensure a consensus during the G-20 summit in Delhi. The road ahead is a tricky one to negotiate.

Malaysia's first reptile cafe

Malaysia: Malaysian reptile enthusiast Yap Ming Yang hopes visitors to his pet-friendly cafe will learn to appreciate snakes and lizards as much as they do furrier creatures such as dogs and cats.

Bearded dragons, leopard geckos and corn snakes are among the species resting in glass tanks stacked around Yap's cafe on the outskirts of Malaysia's capital, Kuala Lumpur.

"People only care about furry animals, cats, dogs, but people always leave out reptiles and snakes," said Yap, who has a background in environmental science and is part of a community of Malaysians with an interest in herpetology - the study of reptiles.

"So I hope showing the public how interesting (they) are, we can cause them to have a better outlook on reptiles and less loved animals" he added

Two men in ice cream dress break record

London: A pair of British friends donned ice cream costumes and crossed the finish line of the Jersey Marathon at the same time, becoming co-holders of a Guinness World Record.

Alan Falle and Scott Welsh earned the Guinness World Record for fastest marathon dressed as a sweet food (male) when they crossed the finish line together after 3 hours, 48 minutes and 12 seconds.

Falle, 32, secretly applied for the record as a surprise for Welsh, 30, as a means of thanking him for helping with his recovery from an ACL injury.

"Scott and I were both thrilled when confirmation arrived that we'd obtained the record, and we hope it will stay in place for some time! It's something unique that we can both be proud of," Falle told Guinness World Records.

REALLY...?

- Diamonds form about 100 miles below ground and have been carried to the earth's surface by deep volcanic eruptions.
- Diamonds are made of a single element—they are nearly 100% carbon. Under the extreme heat and pressure far below the earth's surface, the carbon atoms bond in a unique way that results in diamonds' beautiful and rare crystalline structure.
- The word diamond derives from the Greek word "adamas," which means invincible or indestructible.

CFTRI Director is among "Women who set benchmarks in Mysuru"

Sir,

This is with reference to the write-up titled "Women who rule and set benchmarks in Mysuru" published in Star of Mysore dated Mar. 8 on Page-4.

The reporter seems to have inadvertently missed out the name of Dr. Sridevi Annapurna Singh, who is the first lady Director of Central Food Technological Research Institute (CFTRI), Mysuru. She took charge in January, 2021.

Dr. Sridevi Annapurna Singh

Dr. Sridevi Annapurna Singh was serving as the Chief Scientist and Head of Protein Chemistry Technology Department at CFTRI before being posted as the Director of CFTRI, Mysuru, by the Government.

She was also born, brought up and studied in Mysuru city. A gold medallist in graduation from University of Mysore, Dr. Sridevi is a very humble lady with a lot more achievements in store.

It would have been a matter of pride for Mysureans if her achievements were highlighted on International Women's Day (Mar. 8).

'Barefooted' social crusader of Mysuru

By S. T. Ravikumar

A Gandhian of this age, Bhaskar Sharma of Hebbal is like a messiah for the poor and downtrodden helping them get their work done at Public Offices

Clad in white jubba and dhoti and barefooted, this man is a regular at public offices in the city. He has been truly practising the good old adage Jana Seveye Janardhana Seve (People's service is God's service). To put it in a nutshell, a Gandhian of this age, whose sole motive is to rush to the rescue of the needy.

Considering his age and appearance of a grey-haired, grey-bearded, medium built and calm demeanour, one would be definitely left awestruck, to see a personality like him now-adays, practising an austere lifestyle, as the society is re-plete with people who yearn for wealth and power, backed by lavish lifestyle, filled with self-ish and hatred towards others.

This social crusader-like per-sonality is 65-year-old Bhaskar Sharma of 2nd Cross, 10th Main, Mahadeshwara Layout in Hebbal, Mysuru. Son of Ayurveda doctor late K. Krishnappa, Bhaskar Sharma was into agriculture on his five acres of agricultural land at a village in H.D. Kote Taluk, till he sold it three years back.

Bhaskar Sharma lives with his family which includes his wife Jayashri, son K.B. Anantha Bhushan and daughter K.B. Rohini. Though educated up to PUC, his vast knowledge of 'the art of life' is beyond the measure of any degree.

What arouses one's interest is his appearance which is rather unusual. It has been 30 years since he stopped wearing foot-wear. He wears only a white jubba and dhoti, and prefers to walk only against taking any other motorised transport like a two-wheeler or four-wheeler. At times he travels by KSRTC bus.

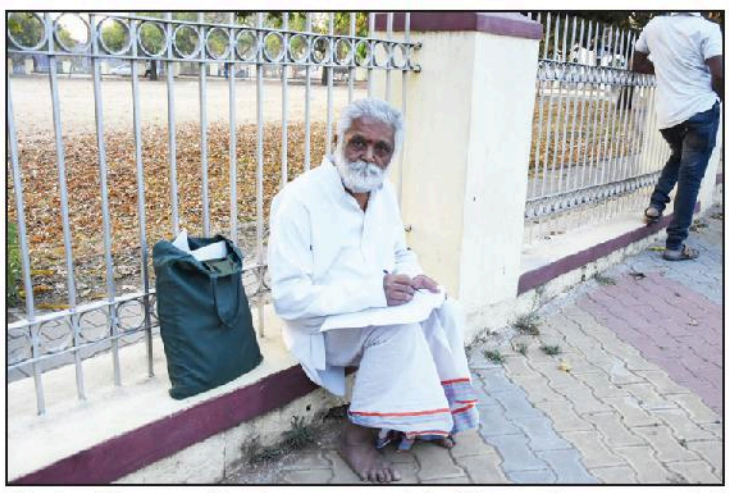
Much interesting is his food habits as his daily diet is less than the frugal meals by size. To describe, a glass of milk and two biscuits both for breakfast and dinner is enough to sati-ate his hunger pangs. Barring this, he hasn't tasted any other types of food, yet he remains healthy, setting a fine example of a 'youthful' life at his age, as his peers prefer to lounge on an easy chair, reminiscing the moments of life.

For the record, Bhaskar Shar-ma's day begins at 6.30 am, followed by morning routine that includes puja and breakfast. He later sets on his daily routine, with a bag in hand, visiting Mini Vidhana Soudha (Taluk Office) at Nazarbad, Zilla Panchayat Office on K.R. Boulevard, Deputy Commissioner's Office, Office of Deputy Director of Land Records (DDLR) among several others. Likewise, he busies himself helping the needy find solutions to their grievances, especially SC and ST beneficiaries, till dusk.

Bhaskar Sharma is like a mes-siah for those in need of pension, khata, title deed, birth and death certificates, besides clearing en-croachments of lakes and other water bodies and development of schools. All these and many more society-oriented activities make him an elixir for life for the poor, unlettered, farmers, oppressed classes and dalits.

As he became popular for his selfless social services, people elected him as a member of Mad-dur Gram Panchayat in Jayapura Hobli, Mysuru Taluk during the previous elections. He was elected easily without spending a single pie from his pocket.

Even as a Gram Panchayat member, he didn't restrict himself to his Constituency, but walked the extra mile to help even those in the surrounding villages. Even after completing his tenure, he continues to respond to the cries of the people, which holds a mirror to his concern for the common people.



Bhaskar Sharma noting down some points sitting on the compound of Oval Grounds near Mysuru DC's Office.

Most of the grievance-holders flock to Bhaskar Sharma with strenuous demands and for the latter, it doesn't matter as he has developed a trait of raising the is-sues without any fear, before any top officer and convinces them with his argument, thus ensuring that justice is done.

Finally, the needy who feel relieved after getting their work done, give Bhaskar Sharma whatever little money they have, with which Sharma meets his daily expenses.

While those having the where-withal to get their work done, don't go to Sharma. He says: "I own nothing nor I want anything. If the depressed lot get some solace from my side, I consider it as my asset. I am toothless and have the condition of 'shaking hands'. People's confidence and faith in me is more than enough."

Bhaskar Sharma, who has deep regrets over the vanishing Indian culture and values, says, "I have dreams to restore Indi-an culture and values. Hence I am driven by spirituality. I will remain firm and determined without making any changes in my stand and disciplined and austere lifestyle."

May his tribe increase.

10-lane Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway project

Congress pats its own back, dismisses BJP's contribution

Former PWD Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa and his followers from Congress party inspecting the Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway this morning.

Mysuru, Mar. 10 (RK&BCT)- What was meant to be an Economic Corridor that would herald progress, the 10-lane Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway project has turned into a battleground of sorts between political rivals BJP and Congress. At ground zero, these political opponents have been taking pot-shots at each other to take credit for the project.

Two days before Prime Minister Narendra Modi is slated to dedicate the Expressway at Gejjalagere near Mandya, the BJP and the Congress locked horns over credit for the project. The Congress is attempting to steal the limelight from the BJP which is aiming to make inroads into the Vokkaliga heartland of Mandya belt, focussing on the development plank and citing the example of the Expressway project.

Walking on the 118-km Expressway for about 500 metres near Siddalingapura this morning, former PWD Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, his followers and members of the Congress party gave full credit to former PM Manmohan Singh, former UPA Government, former CM Siddharamaiah and former Union Minister Oscar Fernandes for the project and dismissed the efforts of MP Pratap Simha, Union Transport Minister Nitin Gadkari, Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the NDA Government.

"It is our project and the BJP, the NDA and the MP have done nothing," said a dismissive Mahadevappa, speaking to reporters at a private hotel after his walk. "The UPA Government changed and whoever would have governed India after the UPA would have completed the project. There is nothing special in it. The Congress and the UPA are the brains of the project," he said.

Releasing a press statement with lots of dates and other technical details, Dr. Mahadevappa said that the earlier State Highway 17 that connected Mysuru and Bengaluru was upgraded to a National Highway on 4.3.2014 during UPA-2 and a Detailed Project Report (DPR) was prepared to further upgrade the Highway.

"The new Project Coordinator Office for the Expressway was opened at Ramanagara and initially the Government of Karnataka gave Rs. 20 lakh to open the Office. Later, the Government of India reimbursed the Rs. 20 lakh in 2017. Land acquisition was initiated during 2015-16," Mahadevappa said.

Dismissing the claim of the BJP that the project was taken up exclusively by the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI), the former PWD Minister said that the State Government (Congress) had a major role to play in the land acquisition, project planning, traffic analysis and data collection.

"The project was taken up by the UPA as per the DPR and the initial estimate was Rs. 3,000 crore. "The BJP escalated the cost to Rs. 9,551 crore and it will take Rs. 12,000 crore to fully complete the project," Mahadevappa said. He, however, did not elaborate if the UPA Government could have completed the project with Rs. 3,000 crore.

The Congress team said that the toll from Bengaluru to Nidaghatta has been fixed at Rs. 135 and till Mandya it is Rs. 165. "As per the NHAI notification, the toll for one side is Rs. 300 and a to and fro journey will cost Rs. 600. In fact, the toll must not be higher than Rs. 120 on one side," Mahadevappa said.

He added that the project was being inaugurated in a hurry. "Let them provide entry and exit points at all towns. Here they have favoured one hotel near Siddalingapura and provided a direct entry and exit while they have not provided similar facility to farmers despite protests and demands," Mahadevappa alleged.

DPR preparation is no big deal, says MP Pratap Simha

Mysuru, Mar. 10 (MTY&BCT)- Addressing a press conference at the Mysuru BJP Office this noon, MP Pratap Simha ridiculed the claim of the Congress that it was the brain behind the project and said, "The Congress party has come for a jolly ride on the Expressway and they are opening their mouth now as the NDA Government led by PM Modi has built a world-class Expressway," he said.

On the claims of the Congress that the UPA Government and the Siddharamaiah Government prepared the Detailed Project Report (DPR), Simha said, "There is a department called National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) to prepare the DPR and no MLA, CM or PM will have to give permission. It is an automatic process and a departmental routine work depending on the Passenger Car Unit (PCU)," he said.

"What is important is the flawless implementation of the Detailed Project Report and release of funds in a timely manner and the completion of the project. Today, every politician on the Mysuru-Bengaluru belt wants to claim credit for the Expressway. Where were they from the date of the project start to the end date and people are not fools. They have visibility on who has done what," the MP said.

MP Pratap Simha addressing a press meet in Mysuru this noon as City BJP President T.S. Srivatsa looks on.

When asked about the incomplete works, the Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha said that, "Several elected representatives had demanded underpasses at Naganahalli, Boodanuru, Pandavapura, Mathikere, Shettahalli, and at Yeliyur Arch in Mandya district. We have added them to the main project work and as such they are pending. All works will be subsequently completed."

'I support PM Modi's leadership, BJP'

As Sumalatha Ambarish made her decision public, while addressing media at her Chamundeshwari Nagar residence in the Sugar Town, some of the supporters raised slogans 'Jai BJP'in favour of the saffron party.

Substantiating her decision to favour BJP, to the eagerly waiting media, with the portrait of her late husband Ambarish in the backdrop, Sumalatha Ambarish who sounded emotional throughout the briefing, said "Whichever country we go, we can feel proud as Indians with our head raised above and that was made possible by the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi."

Queering the pitch for the big fight ahead, Sumalatha Ambarish also gave a fervent call to the people of Mandya to join hands with her in 'Swachh Mandya' campaign like 'Swachh Bharat,' announcing that the time has come to cleanse Mandya politics that has reached its nadir.

Making it aptly clear further, denying that she doesn't have any selfish motives, Sumalatha Ambarish said "This is not about Sumalatha Ambarish's future. This is about Mandya district's development future."

Preceding her announcement, Sumalatha Ambarish also swore on Goddess Chamundeshwari, by saying that the said step was not taken in view of securing her son Abhishek Ambarish's future.

"My son Abhishek will not take the political plunge, till I am in politics. However, it is also true that two political parties had even promised ticket for Abhishek to contest the elections. But Abhishek won't come to politics, as he is going to marry this year and also do films," the MP said.

Without taking the name of arch rival JD(S) that claims Mandya as its fiefdom, Sumalatha Ambarish, who launched a scathing attack on the regional party, said, "They call the district as their stronghold, but I as an Independent MP initiated development works never heard of in the past. If not for my efforts, Pandavapura Sahakari Sakkare Karkhane (PSSK) wouldn't have been revived, MySugar Factory wouldn't have been reopened and illegal mining wouldn't have been stopped. Most importantly, the safety of KRS Dam built by Maharajas of Mysore, that also symbolises the genesis of Mandya district, would have been compromised."

Sumalatha Ambarish also read out a list of development works undertaken in Mandya utilising MP Local Area Development Funds, in the last four years of her tenure as MP.

Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway inauguration on Mar. 12

PM Modi will land in Mysuru before heading to Mandya

Narendra Modi to walk for over 50 metres along with people, folk and cultural troupes

Mandya, Mar. 10 (Mohanraj& BCT)- Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate the Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway project at Gejjalagere near Mandya on Sunday (Mar. 12) and also dedicate the Cauvery drinking water scheme for the Sugar Town.

Sharing details of the Prime Minister's itinerary, Mysuru district Minister S.T. Somashekar and Mysuru MP Pratap Simha said in Mandya yesterday that PM Modi will arrive at the Mysore Airport in Mandakalli on Mysuru-Nanjangud National Highway at 11.10 am on a special flight from New Delhi.

The PM will fly in a MI helicopter to PES College of Engineering campus in Mandya where the chopper will land at Karnataka State Cricket Association (KSCA) Grounds.

After reaching Mandya at 11.35 am, the PM will hold a roadshow from the Inspection Bungalow (IB) Circle to Nanda Theatre Circle, covering a distance of 1.75 km. The Prime Minister will be greeted by over 40,000 people who will stand behind barricades laid on both sides of the road. The cavalcade will enter the new Expressway from Amaravati Hotel.

The Prime Minister will then alight from the vehicle and walk for over 50 metres along with people, folk and cultural troupes. Modi will view the Expressway project and later reach Gejjalagere Colony where a giant stage has been set up for the inauguration. He will address a public meeting of beneficiaries of various Government programmes which will commence at 12.05 pm.

Apart from inaugurating the Expressway project, the PM will also lay the foundation stone for the greenfield Mysuru-Kushalnagar four-lane highway project to be taken up at a cost of Rs. 3,530 crore. He will also dedicate the Cauvery drinking water project for Mandya apart from a hospital.

After concluding his public engagements in Mandya, the PM will return to Mysore Airport in the chopper and fly to Hubballi where he is inaugurating a series of development works.

SPG meeting

Yesterday, as part of the PM's visit, the Special Protection Group (SPG) Officers held a meeting with senior officers including Mysuru Deputy Commissioner (DC) Dr. K.V. Rajendra and Mysore Airport authorities, to review security arrangements at the Mysore Airport. SPG Officer Ambarish Upadhyay asked the officials to identify a full-fledged hospital near the Airport and to keep on stand-by three ambulances at the Airport.

The Chief Minister, his ministerial colleagues and the Union Ministers will be allowed to welcome the PM as per protocol. The SPG has asked the Mysuru District Administration to make preparations for the VIP to travel to Mandya by road in case the situation arises.

The BJP is expecting nearly 2 to 3 lakh people to attend the public function and Pratap Simha ridiculed the inspection of the Expressway by Congress leaders. He said such an exercise should have been conducted during the construction phase but they did not do so. Now such an inspection will amount to a jolly ride, he said.

A speeding goods truck heading towards Bengaluru from Mysuru lost control near an Underpass and crashed onto the footpath on the service road of the Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway this morning. It was a sharp curve and as there were no signboards to indicate the danger, the truck driver got confused while trying to avoid another vehicle coming from the opposite side leading to the mishap.

Obstructing official from discharging duties

Regional Commissioner terminates membership of Hunsur CMC Councillor

Hunsur, Mar. 10 (KK)- Sounding a warning bell to errant people's representatives, Mysuru Regional Commissioner Dr. G.C. Prakash has terminated the membership of a Councillor of Hunsur City Municipal Council (CMC) for obstructing an official from discharging his duties.

H.P. Satish Kumar, the Hunsur CMC member of Ward 8, is the one whose membership has been terminated for misconduct.

On Nov. 18, 2021, Satish Kumar had summoned the then CMC Commissioner Ramesh to the official chamber of the CMC President and abused him using foul language. Satish Kumar had also attempted to physically assault the CMC Commissioner, when

Dr. G.C. Prakash

H.P. Satish Kumar

Manu, a fellow CMC member intervened and calmed down the situation.

Later, Ramesh lodged a complaint against Satish Kumar at Hunsur Police Station. Thereafter, Satish Kumar, continuing with his wayward ways, visited the CMC Office much before the arrival of officials and staff on Nov. 24, 2021 and unauthorisedly reviewed the MAR-19 book, office files and petitions filed by the public, which action of Satish Kumar was recorded by the CCTV cameras. This apart, Satish Kumar also pressurised the staff to get works done as per his diktat and also attempted to make some corrections in the files. Taking strong objection to Satish Kumar's actions, the then CMC Commissioner (Ramesh) complained to the higher authorities against him.

After receiving the complaint, Mysuru Regional Commissioner Dr. G.C. Prakash held a prolonged enquiry. As the charges against Satish Kumar were proved beyond doubt with the CCTV cameras as capturing all his actions, Dr. Prakash on Jan. 6, 2023, terminated the membership of Hunsur CMC member (Ward 8) Satish Kumar as per Col.41 (1) of Karnataka Municipality Act-1964.

Rs. 1 lakh bribe for works worth Rs. 1.60 lakh

Lokayukta traps Kodagu DFO for demanding bribe from her subordinate

Madikeri, Mar. 10 (PS&BCT)- At a time when allegations of 40 percent commission for Government work are flying thick and fast, here is an incident where a high-ranking Forest Department Officer demanded 60 percent commission for official work. She has now been trapped by the Lokayukta based on a complaint from a junior ranking Officer working with her.

Lokayukta sleuths yesterday caught District Forest Officer (DFO) Social Forestry of Madikeri Range, Poornima red-handed, while she was allegedly accepting a bribe from her junior Officer. Based on a complaint from the Range Forest Officer (RFO), the sleuths caught Poornima while she was accepting Rs. 50,000 from Mayura Udaya Karavekar.

Poornima was arrested under the Prevention of Corruption Act and taken into custody for further investigation. The Forest Department had initiated two small works worth Rs. 1.60 lakh. Poornima allegedly pestered Mayura Udaya Karavekar to hand over 60 percent (Rs. 1 lakh) of the sanctioned money as bribe.

When Karavekar refused to pay the commission as the work was undertaken efficiently and following all the rules of public work in a transparent manner, the accused used to humiliate him publicly. She also threatened to suspend him after writing an unfavourable report against him to the higher officers. Unable to bear the harassment and greed, Karavekar approached the Lokayukta, he wrote in the complaint.

Poornima

In his complaint, Karavekar said that the Government had sanctioned two posts of forest watcher and authorised him to make appointments at a fixed salary of Rs. 15,000. The accused officer started pestering him to make two more fake appointments by fabricating documents and fudging the records and pay their salaries (Rs. 30,000) every month to her.

Unable to bear the torture, Karavekar approached the Lokayukta. Based on the complaint, a trap was laid and the accused was arrested. Karavekar also submitted the audio of the phone conversation recording where Poornima is demanding money. She had asked Karavekar to keep Rs. 50,000 in her department official vehicle parked in front of the Aranya Bhavan.

As per the trap plan, the Lokayukta sleuths raided the officer when she was picking up the cash that was kept in the vehicle. The raid was led by Mysuru Division Lokayukta Police Superintendent Suresh Babu, Kodagu Lokayukta Dy.SP Pavan Kumar and team.

WORD OF THE DAY

Contretemps

Pronunciation: KAHN-truh-tahn.
Meaning: The word contretemps refers to an inconvenient or embarrassing occurrence or situation. It can also refer to a dispute or argument.
Origin: When contretemps first appeared in English in the 1600s, it did so in the context of fencing: a contretemps was a thrust or pass made at the wrong time, whether the wrongness of the time had to do with one's lack of skill or an opponent's proficiency. From the fencing bout contretemps slid gracefully onto the dance floor, a contretemps being a step danced on an unaccented beat. Both meanings are in keeping with the word's French roots, contre- (meaning "counter") and temps (meaning "time"). (The word's English pronunciation is also in keeping with those roots: \KAHN-truh-tahn\.) By the late 1700s, contretemps had proved itself useful outside of either activity by referring to any embarrassing or inconvenient mishap—something out of sync or rhythm with social conventions. The sense meaning "dispute" or "argument" arrived relatively recently, in the 20th century, perhaps coming from the idea that if you step on someone's toes, literally or figuratively, a scuffle might ensue.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Champagne taste on a beer budget

Meaning: The phrase 'Champagne taste on a beer budget' refers to someone who lives above her means and likes expensive things she can't possibly afford.
Origin: Towards the end of the 19th century, champagne was associated with prestige, luxury and a symbol of status and class. Since its invention beer is the most popular alcoholic beverage, representing a more affordable and common lifestyle. The phrase 'Champagne Taste on a Beer Budget' combines the two, meaning luxury on limited income. It was first recorded in a news item by Howard Fielding and Frederick R.Barton 'The Victim of his Clothes'. Published in the July edition of The Globe-Republican in 1890: "School mastering I found, did not pay for a man who had acquired champagne taste on a beer budget..."
Example: Laura – "I can't believe Kimberly spent her entire salary on her red Jimmy Choo's." Dana– "That doesn't surprise me at all, she has a champagne taste on a beer budget."
